Very few restaurants in the country can boast a rating of supelative in any one facet of their business such as food, service, or sanitation. But when a restaurant can claim this rating in each of these classifications, that is something to be proud of.

There is, however, a restaurant in Torrance that has received a national award for superlative food, service, and sanitation.

The restaurant is the Parasol at the corner of Pacific Coast Highway and Crenshaw.

This award was presented to the Parasol by the "Institutional" magazine which is the largest trade magazine for restaurants. Angie Pappas, owner of the Parasol, was flown back to Chicago to the restaurant convention last May to receive restaurant blends in with the background of Palos Verdes Hills and the surrounding terrain.

"Gateway to Rolling Hills," as the restaurant is referred to by Manager Harry Prod, is a must on your list for food enjoyment 24 hours a day.

The interior design is in keeping with the exterior shape even to the light fixtures. The menu was classed by the judging panel as very modest in price for the decor offered.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. Klimeh, of 725 Portola, in Torrance for being this week's winners in The Sizzler No. 2 weekly free dinner. All that the Klimehs are required to do is tear the ad from this page and present it to the manager at the Sizzler No. 2 at 2700 Redondo Beach Blvd. in North Torrance and receive their dinners.

The Sizzler No. 2 is located just east of El Camino College and next to the Roadium Theater.
